Tour of the Lake District

The Tour of the Lake District is a 96 mile circuit starting in the popular tourist town of Windermere and following a clockwise round, finishes off in yet another popular tourist town, Ambleside. This trail takes in each of the main Lake District valleys, along lake shores and over remote mountain passes. You will follow in the footsteps of shepherds and drovers along ancient pathways from one valley to the next. Please be aware that this is a challenging route, you will need to be proficient in map reading and the use of a compass. Do not hesitate to contact us if you have any queries regarding the suitability of this walk, we are happy to help.

Starting in Windermere, the route takes you through the picturesque towns of Ambleside, Coniston, Keswick and Grasmere (site of Dove Cottage the former home of the romantic poet William Wordsworth). The route takes you through some of the Lake District's most impressive valleys including the more remote valleys of the western Lake District such as Eskdale, Wasdale and Ennerdale, linked together with paths over high mountain passes. One of the many highlights of this scenic tour is a visit to the remote Wasdale Head in the shadow of Scafell Pike, the highest mountain in England.

Essential Info

Length	4 - 10 Nights
Full Route Length	96 miles / 149 km
Shortest Break Length	34 miles / 58 km

Grade

Challenging

Terrain: A mixture of forest paths, wooded lake shores and tracks following the lower slopes of the fells, with several mountain passes.

How Much Up & Down? The average daily ascent is 625m / 2050ft, but the actual climbing varies each day from 360m / 1180ft (Windermere to Ambleside) to around 900m / 2950ft (Coniston to Boot).

What's it like underfoot? The paths and tracks that are followed on this route are well defined and maintained. There are occasional sections where the path, while still well defined, becomes rougher on higher ground.

Signposting: There are no official route waymarks and you will need to use your route description and map to follow the paths and tracks on the ground.

Navigation: The paths are well defined, but you will need to read a map and use the route description. You spend some time on higher ground and may encounter mist and hill fog so the ability to use a compass is essential. While the footpaths the route follows are marked on the map, the route itself is not highlighted.

Weather: You may be lucky enough to encounter warm, dry weather over the whole route and enjoy dry paths and tremendous views, but you must be prepared because the weather can change quickly. Remember you are spending time on higher ground, where it will be colder than in the valleys. Good clothing and waterproofs essential!

Route

Windermere to Coniston

Your first day begins in the popular tourist town of Windermere. Leaving Windermere on well-defined paths, you gain height and are rewarded with great views over Lake Windermere and the ground you will cover in the next day or so. The route continues along the old drovers road past historic Townend farm, which is open to the public and offers a great insight into 17th Century Lakeland life. Further along the viewpoint at Jenkin Crag is worth a short detour before continuing to the bustling town of Ambleside. On leaving Ambleside, the route climbs below Loughrigg Fell, past Loughrigg Tarn on easy to follow trails before arriving in the village of Elterwater which guards the entrance to the beautiful Langdale Valley in the heart of the Lake District. From Elterwater, a well-defined path leads out of the valley and journeys alongside Tarn How's before descending to the charming village of Coniston, the one-time home of the poet John Ruskin.

Coniston to Boot

This stage of the route follows the old Walna Scarr Road under the shadow of the Old Man of Coniston over to the peaceful Duddon Valley before climbing again over the mossy fell to Eskdale. The walking is generally easy with no steep climbing, but you will be surprised to learn that by the end of the day, following two gradual ascents of Walna Scar in the morning and Ulpha Fell in the afternoon, your total ascent for the day will be almost 900m! Skirting around the side of Harter Fell and following the River Esk for a short while brings you into Boot. The more adventurous among you can follow the high level alternative which involves climbing the Old Man of Coniston before continuing on undemanding terrain to follow the Hardknott Pass into Boot.

Boot to Buttermere

Rejoining the River Esk downstream to Eskdale Green, you cross over the old Eskdale to Ravenglass railway line. An easy climb through the ash and birch woodland of Miterdale Forest on a wooded bridleway brings you to the top of Irton Fell. Descending into the valley down the flanks of Irton Fell, the remote Wastwater finally reveals itself. You then have the choice of traversing the western side of Wastwater on loose scree slopes or the easier option of following the road along the eastern side to the Wasdale Head Inn. From Wasdale Head the route skirts Kirk Fell through Mosedale, an easy level walk along the valley floor in the shadow of Pillar before climbing up to the col of Black Sail Pass. Descending into Ennerdale, you pass the remote Black Sail Youth Hostel before a gentle climb brings you to Scarth Gap Pass. The descent into the Buttermere Valley requires care as the paths are rocky which can become slippery if it is wet, before picking up the main path along the shore of Buttermere into the village itself.

Buttermere to Keswick

Starting in the quiet woodlands of Buttermere, the route climbs steadily out of Buttermere following a well-defined path over the fell sides above Sail Beck around 200m (650ft) to the top of Rigg Beck. Once the pass is reached, the path drops down again to the peaceful Newlands valley where the route meanders on before skirting the slopes of Catbells. Many of Beatrix Potter's stories are set in this area. A higher level route via the top of Catbells, one of the most popular short climbs in the Lake District, rewards you with spectacular views of the northern fells, Skiddaw and the lakes of Derwentwater and Bassenthwaite, en route to the bustling market town of Keswick.

Keswick to Grasmere

Leaving Keswick the route heads for Castlerigg Stone Circle before crossing farmland to reach the popular viewpoint of Walla Crag. From there a broad path descends to the packhorse bridge at Ashness before entering an upland valley leading to the tiny community of Watendlath. After a short climb it's an easy descent into the Borrowdale Valley at Rothwaite. Following a clear path from Rothwaite alongside Stonethwaite Beck, the trail then becomes rockier underfoot before climbing up the remote Greenup Gill to Greenup Edge on a steep but obvious path. You then have the choice to take the easier route down to the valley of Far Easedale, which is often boggy underfoot or over the Lion and the Lamb on Helm Crag into Grasmere. This is a memorable day with views of Lakeland fells in all directions.

Grasmere to Patterdale

The villages of Grasmere and Patterdale are split by a high mountain range, the longest high level range in Lakeland. The route lies over the Helvellyn range and you can choose to walk either over the pass at Grisedale Tarn, or for the more adventurous, via the summit of Helvellyn, England's 3rd highest mountain, before dropping down to Patterdale on the shores of Ullswater.

Patterdale to Ambleside

The last stage of the Tour sees you leaving the shores of Ullswater in the direction Brothers Water. Passing to the west of Brothers Water the trail climbs alongside Caiston Beck, arriving at Scandale Pass before turning to reach the summit of Red Screes, offering exceptional 360 degree views on a clear day. From Red Screes it's a superb ridge walk down into Ambleside and the completion of your Tour of the Lake District!

Additional Days

Windermere

The linked towns of Windermere and Bowness at the heart of the Lake District have been an attraction for visitors since Victorian times. With the lake shore of Windermere so close, there is always something to do whatever the season - walking along the lakeside, enjoying panoramic views of the lake and mountains from several viewpoints, experiencing a whole host of water-based activities, luxuriating in the pleasures of travelling around the area by steamer, open-top bus or steam locomotive or discovering the lake for yourself by hiring a rowing boat, dinghy or cruiser. Away from the lake shore is a varied choice of heritage sites, historic houses, colourful gardens and other visitor attractions.

Ambleside

Ambleside is a bustling Lakeland town, with charming shops and a wide choice of good cafes and restaurants. The small town is known for its landmark Bridge House and its connections with writers, poets and artists including Beatrix Potter. There are many short walks that can be enjoyed from here, or you can wander down to Waterhead and take a ride on one of the Windermere "Steamers" on the lake.

Coniston

A pleasant Lakeland Village on the shores of Lake Coniston. Take a cruise on the lake on the steam launch "Gondola". Visit historic Brantwood, nineteenth century home of John Ruskin. For the more energetic, Coniston Old Man is a great walk with tremendous views over the Lake District and Morecambe Bay.

Keswick

Keswick is a bustling market town centred around the historic Moot Hall, with a vast array of outdoor shops – if you need any outdoor gear, you will get it here! There is a wide choice of places to eat or have a coffee, and a range of galleries to visit. Enjoy one of the easy, short walks down to the lakeshore from where there is a regular launch service around Derwentwater. Or pop into our offices to say hello or book your next holiday!

Grasmere

Grasmere is a charming village right in the heart of the Lake District National Park and a great location to spend a well earned rest day. It was once the home of the famous poet William Wordsworth and today you can visit two of his former homes - Dove Cottage and Rydal Mount. In the centre of Grasmere is St. Oswald's Church, which contains the Wordsworth family graves. The village itself has narrow bustling streets with cafes, shops and pubs. The frequent local bus service connects Grasmere with Keswick and Ambleside if you want to explore further into the Lakes.

Patterdale

Patterdale offers spectacular scenery in a peaceful location. This tiny village in the heart of the English Lake District will give you a well earned rest before heading onwards on your walking route. Boat trips can be taken on the Ullswater Steamers to Pooley Bridge, with several opportunities to disembark and explore the lakeshore attractions along the way.
